

THE CASE OF THE

HIDDEN

COBRA™

THE EXPERIENCE

A young woman, wearing the colours of the now-defunct biker gang The Cobras, has been found shot in a hotel room. Preliminary evidence points to a known associate of a rival gang who was recently seen in the area. Your assignment is to review the case file, get a briefing from the RCMP profiler, perform whatever forensic examinations you feel are necessary, and solve the crime. Good luck.

THE DETAILS

Overview

The Case of the Hidden Cobra™ is a hardboiled urban mystery designed to stimulate thinking and focused discussion. The tense atmosphere of intrigue raises participants' energy level and draws them into the problem. Team members are given an opportunity to lead and to display talents that may not be recognized in their day-to-day work efforts. This event acts as a "kick start" for participants' thinking, even as they form bonds by working together.

Key Learning Points

- Discover new individual talents in self and colleagues
- Build individual leadership abilities
- Hone analytical thinking
- Emphasize importance of attention to detail
- Focus on time management, organization and effective delegation
- Stimulate discussion and communication between participants

Practical Details

- 10-100 Participants
- Teams of 4
- 3-4 Hours
- Any indoor venue
- Ideal for training sessions
- Managers, professionals, executives

Results

- Focused, engaged participants who are ready to think
- Improved communication
- Enhanced understanding of other viewpoints
- Expose possibly hidden talents
- Sharp analytical and critical thinking